"Getting to become an iift alumni definitely adds a feather in the cap. The course has in every way widened the horizons and opened the gates to a plethora of opportunities. The prestigious and ever supportive faculties have always extended their support not only with the curriculum but also helped us gain a perspective for real world scenarios. Needless to say, in this demanding course the presence of a great support system becomes irreplaceable. My classmates had kept us going in the most difficult of the times when the course became demanding. Another silent support pillar has been IIFT 's staff who have heard our voices and made this completion of course become smoother and comfortable."

Institute was too good in terms of global exposure learnings, the faculties were really good in learning and helpful to many extent, the internal staff was helpful in providing things timely and last but not the least batch was too good and the course was a great learning and provided a lot of good experiences.
